MISSIONARY WORK THE THEME

for Sermons Tomorrow.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Cause in Foreign Countries to Be Brought to Attention of Washington Churchgoers.

Practically every pulpit in Washington will be occupied tomorrow by missionaries from the far-off countries of the world and by ministers from prominent churches in other cities in this country, all of whom are in the city this week attending the world's sixth Sunday school convention. All of the church exercises will be held in the interests of the missionary movement. The assignments of speakers were announced this morning at convention head-

One precious to our heart has gone, The voice we loved is stilled;

BY THE FAMILY

ANDERSON. Sacred to the memory of our dear mother and grandmother, RENA AN-DERSON, beloved mother of Alice Wilson. who departed this life five years ago, May 21, Loved in life, remembered in death, DAUGHTER AND GRANDDAUGHTER.

Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade. Death came with friendly care And this beautiful bud to heaven convered And bade it blossom there.

CHASE. Sacred to the memory of our precious wife and mother, ANNA M. CHASE, whom God in His mercy so suddenly called away one year ago today, May 21, 1909. Mother, not one day are you forgotten; Something said or something done. We mention your name, if only a whisper; Wish mother was here to cheer us some.
